Student Entertainment Events Presents: The Maryland Mix Tape Concert Series featuring Scapegoat

The University of Maryland, College Park is pleased to announce Scapegoat with student band opener Skindieep, as apart of the Maryland Mix Tape concert series on Friday November 3rd. The Maryland Mix Tape concert series was established to bring and introduce a variety of music genres to campus. Courtney Devores of The Charlotte Observer proclaims “Scapegoat straddles metal, math rock, hardcore, and emo with a good balance of pop hooks.” Doors will open at 7 p.m. and the event will start at 7:30 p.m. in the Atrium. This event is free of charge.

Scapegoat, the five-piece hard rock band from Charlotte, North Carolina, began in 1999. Band members Justin Driscoll, Daniel Hitselberger, Dan Royer, Kit Walters and Spencer Bensch started recording their first CD in 2000. After great success with their first CD Element of Design, Scapegoat released Element of Design in 2002. According to Music Monitor Magazine, These Cards We’re Dealt, the band’s third CD released in 2004, has sold over 9,656 copies since February 2004 making it the 2nd largest east coast seller. The band continued to grow when a second guitarist, Spencer Bensch, joined Scapegoat. Scapegoat released their latest CD, Let Our Violins Be Heard with Tragic Hero Records on October 22, 2005.
